GRUDGE KILLER OF BABY SOUGHT

'Speak to Me, Daddy!'—In vain, grief-stricken young Mrs. Ruth Callahan clings to the limp hand of her father, Wesley Waters, 45, killed by an auto which ran him down in a Chicago street. Tearful plea of the daughter, "Daddy, daddy, please speak to me, daddy," can win no response from lips already stilled forever. Mrs. Callahan saw crowd gathered at scene of accident. When she approached, she realized victim was her father.

NOTE FLAYS JAP SEARCH OF BRITONS

TIENTSIN, June 15 (AP)—A tense episode in Japan's blockade of Tientsin foreign areas in which British troops with machine-guns and Japanese troops with tanks faced each other across barricades for several hours was ended tonight when both forces marched away.

COAKLEY DEFENDS CALLAHAN

In a dramatic move toward defense of Public Works Commissioner William F. Callahan, Executive Councillor Daniel H. Coakley charged today that Callahan incurred wrath of Republican party higher-ups by refusing to give department business to a "favored group" of Boston brokers.

Coakley tossed his verbal bombshell at an executive council meeting behind closed doors, but his raised voice carried clearly to the corridors outside.

He asserted that Callahan was approached by Charles Nichols, executive secretary of the Republican state committee, and by Elmer E. Nelson, Governor Saltonstall's personal secretary.

They requested that Callahan give bonding and insurance plans of the public works department exclusively to a Boston brokerage clique, Coakley alleged.

RAFS G. O. P. BOSSES

He charged further that Nichols and Nelson told Callahan the favored group of brokers would not divide xrat profits from the public works department business among themselves but would put their commissions and fees into a pool

A strong British note to Japanese authorities insisted on "immediate steps" to end the stopping and searching of British subjects by Japanese soldiers blockading the British and French concessions.

The opposing troops, patrolling opposite sides of the barricaded concession boundary, were separated by only a few feet until the British suddenly withdrew and the Japanese then quickly removed their force.

SHIPS SEARCHED

Edgar G. Jamieson, British consul-general, in a vigorous protest to Japanese diplomatic authorities against the blockade, also charged that British shipping on the Hai River, Tientsin's outlet to the sea, was being stopped and searched by the Japanese and demanded that this cease.

Jamieson declared the Japanese manning the barricades at the concession's exit were "discriminating against British from among the foreign community of Tientsin."

TOKYO, June 15 (INS)—Domei, official Japanese news agency, said the British steamer Yang Tai Shan broke the blockade of Kulangsu Island today.

TIENTSIN, June 15 (INS)—First violence in Japan's blockade of the British and French concessions in Tientsin came today when 2000 Chinese rushed the barricades surrounding the foreign settlements. British troops dispersed the Chinese.

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain today indicated the possibility of seeking joint action by Britain, France and the United States if Japan used the Tientsin incident for more far-reaching demands against foreign interests in China.

SALEM, June 15—Shocked into unconsciousness when the bit of a pneumatic drill came into contact with a buried high-tension cable, four men were burned in a sub-station of the Salem Gas and Electric Company here today.

Condition of two was pronounced so serious that they had die, police said.

Rushed to Salem Hospital were Paul Fagina, 58, and Guy Cloucor, 48, both of High Street, Salem. They acted as drillers. One of the men was drilling the floor when the bit short-circuited the hidden cable, an dthe other rushed to his aid as he fell writhing to the floor and was shocked in turn.

The second man also received an injury to his head when he fell, but it was not possible to determine which had been drilling, and which the rescuer.

Boy or Girl? He 'Fortels' With Questions

BOY OR GIRL? ASK HIM!—Sidney A. Fortel, Newark, N. J., living up to name, claims he can, by asking prospective mothers 25 questions, foretell sex of unborn children. Here he is with wife telling their own son, Marvin, that he is to soon have baby brother. The 25 questions? That's Mr. Fortel's secret!

Fortel Nears Showdown On Foretelling Unborn's Sex

NEWARK, N. J., June 15 (AP)—They laughed last March when Sidney A. Fortel foretold his 25-year-old wife, Jane, would bear him a son on June 17 or 18.

GIRL IS HEROINE AS 2 FOIL DEATH

WARWICK, R. I., June 15—Shuttled by shifting tides for five hours in the dark waters of the local bay while clinging to an overturned and water-logged skiff, Miss Vance Mayor, 21, of Hahhis street, Warwick Neck, and Varnard Frizzell, 38, who lives across the street, struggled to shore here today.

Miss Mayor, a strong swimmer, proved herself a heroine in spite of a sprained ankle.

Frizzell cannot swim so well. The girl could have saved herself easily, but refused to leave her companion, and all during the five-hour struggle aided in keeping him afloat.

Caught by a strong current at last, they were able to beach the boat on Prudence Island and, cold, exhausted, made the mainland.

Both were taken to their homes, suffering from exposure.

The couple started out in Frizzell's skiff, equipped with an outboard motor, at 7:10 last night. They headed for Patience Island and cruised about until about 9:30, when the boat crashed into some submerged wreckage. The impact threw Miss Mayor forward, spraining her ankle.

Then, as the skiff slipped off the wreckage, it turned over.

Aided by the tide, they paddled for Rocky Point, but, when it seemed they might make it, the tide turned and swept them back.

Boston Stores Open All Day Saturday

Boston department and specialty stores generally will be open all day Saturday, June 17, according to an announcement of the Retail Trade Board.

Fortel expressed the hope today that Saturday night or Sunday morning he'll be able to indulge in a bit of last-laughing at the expense of skeptics who scoffed at his study of sex pre-determination. And for good measure, he announced that not only is it to be a boy for the Fortels, but it may be twins—in which case he said, they will both be boys.

Mrs. Fortel, who has implicit faith in the formula her husband developed after years of study, prepared today to enter Beth Israel Hospital where the Fortel baby—or babies—will be brought into the world.

"When my wife has her baby I am 100 per cent sure it will be a boy, because we knew how to plan it that way," said the 35-year-old Linen Supply Company owner. "We also tried to arrange for twins, but only time will tell whether I have the right formula for that."

"But I was, and still am positive we will have a boy and that it will arrive within a 12-hour period that I have calculated, extending from Saturday night into Sunday."

Sex pre-determination has been Fortel's hobby for 20 years. By reading medical tones and questioning hundreds of women he arrived at the "secret" formula. He

Less seriously injured were William Farrell, 35, of Leominster, a mechanic, and Clifford Hartley,

The plant was thrown into an uproar by the accident, and the fire department and police emergency squads were called. All four men are married and have families.

Hunt Grudge Killer Of Kidnaped Baby

CLYDE, O., June 15 (INS)—Two theories were followed by police today in their search for the killer of tiny Haldon Baker Fink, a 10-weeks-old infant, whose body was hurled into Green Creek a scant four miles from the home where he was kidnaped Tuesday evening.

MRS. MAY GAGNON AND DAUGHTER, SHIRLEY
Paying for hubby's car "too much"—seeks divorce

Charges Hubby Made Her Pay for His Car

It was bad enough working to support him, but when he insisted the money she earned was his personally and that she must pay for a car he bought, that was too much.

So Mrs. May Gagnon, 25, of Chatham street, Lynn, told Judge John A. Costello today in Salem probate court, where the judge took under advisement her petition for divorce from Louis Gagnon, Lynn.

She charged cruel and abusive treatment and neglect to provide, and told the court that since he was ordered, in April, 1928, to pay $4 a week toward support of their two-year-old daughter he has contributed a total of exactly $8.

Mrs. Gagnon was awarded sole custody of the girl, Shirley May Gagnon, during the April, 1938, hearing. Today she related in court a series of abuses to which he allegedly subjected her, and told Judge Costello that Gagnon, after losing his job the day following their marriage on June 7, 1936, refused to look for other employment.

She obtained work as a waitress, she said, and paid their board as best she could, for a time, at the home of her mother.

Later the couple and the baby took a place of their own but were ejected, and at one time were on welfare.

Whenever she suggested that he look for work, the witness said, he would fly into a rage, strike her,

One theory was that the killing and kidnaping were the result of a grudge against the family. Another was that the child was kidnaped by a degenerate and then thrown into the creek when the panicky abductor discovered he was dead.

Coroner D. W. Philo reported examinations disclosed the babe had been killed before it was tossed into the water from a bridge 20 feet above. Investigation showed it had died by suffocation, Dr. Philo said, and in the absence of marks on the throat it was possible the infant was suffocated, perhaps with the blue blanket in which it was wrapped as it lay in its crib.

DRAG FOR BLANKET

The creek was to be dragged today in a search for the blanket. Should the blanket be found in the creek, it will hold no special significance but if it is found elsewhere, it might provide an important clue to the slayer.

The babe's mother, Veima Baker Fink, 22, who was divorced last week from the father, Ervin Fink, a Fremont, Ohio, factory worker, collapsed and was placed under a doctor's care.

Sheriff H. L. Myers interviewed residents of the community in the hope of eliciting some clue to the killer. A woman who lives five blocks from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Baker, the child's grandparents with whom he and his mother were living, told the sheriff she saw an old automobile slowly cruising by her house the morning of the kidnaping and that later she believed she had heard a child crying.

The sheriff said Fink could supply no clues to the killer and was able to account for all his movements.

He said all members of the baby's family had volunteered to be fingerprinted "for purposes of identification."

ERROR MAY COST POLICEMAN SIGHT

Possible loss of the sight of his right eye is faced by Patrolman Frederick Phillamore, 30, of 146 Woodrow avenue, Dorchester, as the result of a mistake at Boston City Hospital, it was revealed today.

Patrolman Phillamore is stationed in Park square, and, last night, got something in his eye.

Relieved from duty, he went to the hospital. There was no doctor immediately available, and a male nurse volunteered to help him.

He prepared an eye-bath and handed it to him.

There was a scream of anguish as the policeman applied the liquid to his eye. Investigation disclosed that instead of boric acid solution, the man had given him carbolic acid.

Phillamore was under observation today to determine what steps can be taken to save his eye.

OLD COLONY PLAN SCORED BY STATE AND N. Y. CENTRAL

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Abandonment of passenger service on the Old Colony line in the Boston commuting area, proposed in a reorganization plan for the New Haven Railroad, was attacked today by Massachusetts and the New York Central Railroad.

Commissioner Charles D. Mahaffie, presiding at Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on the reorganization plan, permitted both to intervene.

The Massachusetts petition, presented by Edward O. Proctor, assistant state attorney general, said thousands of the state's residents were dependent upon the passenger service, and its abandonment "is against the public interest."

CITY STATION EXPENSE
New York Central's petition said it and the New Haven, the Boston and Providence and the Old Colony railroads were required to use and carry the expense of operating the South Station in Boston.

Abandonment of passenger service on the Old Colony, which has been operated by the New Haven under a lease, the New York Central said, would eliminate the Old Colony as a contributor to the expense of operating the South Station, and thereby increase the New York Central's share of the expense.

OPPOSES DELAY
Representatives of railroad Brotherhoods protested the proposed abandonment of passenger service yesterday. T. J. McGrath, representing the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, today asked E. G. Buckland, chairman of the New Haven directors, if any consideration was to be given to substitute service for approximately 40,000 people using the Old Colony lines between Boston and Middleboro and Plymouth, Mass., daily. "I don't see how we can delay reorganization of the New Haven until this Old Colony matter is settled," Buckland replied. Buckland testified yesterday the New Haven was willing to take over the properties of the Old Colony only on the condition the passenger service could be discontinued.

He told McGrath today the Old Colony railroad owned no passenger equipment which could be used for a substitute service, but "I would be willing to let them have the New Haven equipment if they thought they could use it."

The Old Colony also is in process of reorganization.

Governor's Tax Talk Cancelled

So that he can make a thorough study of the budget bill passed by both Senate and House and sent to him for his signature, Gov. Saltonstall has cancelled all extraneous activities, including a radio broadcast scheduled for tomorrow night on behalf of his $50,000,000 tax plan.

The governor stated that he intends going over the budget bill item for item, and that changes are probable, which he will send back for legislative consideration next week. The budget, calling for state expenditures of $138,000,000 during the next two years.

URGES TRUE AMERICANISM—Interviewed at his Parker House suite today, Rev. William C. Kernan, Bayonne, N. War Debt Day--Finland Pays

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Another installment on the $13,000,000,000 war debts to the United States became due today. As usual only Finland paid in full.

Hungary paid $9,828.16 this week on her debt—originally $1,685,000—and expressed hope Congress would favor last year's settlement offer.

Rumania has offered to settle her $64,000,000 debt on "scaling down" terms.

Great Britain, which owes $85,676,765.05, has reiterated her offer to discuss settlement "whenever a satisfactory result might be reached."

CRUSH ALL ISMS, PLEA OF CLERIC

Teaching of the true meaning of American democracy and principles, in every grammar and high school classroom for a period of 15 minutes daily, was urged today by Rev. William C. Kernan, Bayonne, N. J., Episcopal pastor.

Father Kernan, one of the principal speakers at the Americanization meeting to be held tonight in Boston Opera House, said Americans had completely forgotten the meaning of American democracy.

In his suite at the Parker House, Father Kernan, discussing means and methods of combating subversive propaganda, race and religious hatreds which are current in the United States, said in part:

"There is only one way to combat 'isms' and racial prejudices in the United States.

"First of all let the advocates of these various other forms of government talk their heads off—that is a right they have under our Constitution.

"Secondly, true Americans, interested in our present form of democracy, should get together and fight these agitators, not physically, but by spreading the meaning of American democracy.

"Every school, church, lodge, club and other groups should set aside certain periods where the ideals of American democracy may be discussed and drilled into the minds of our young citizens and their parents."

Pardon Probers Plan To Call Patriarca

While the names of six prominent Boston attorneys were being drawn into the pardons and paroles probe, the possibility loomed today that Raymond L. S. Patriarca, pardoned convict who was brought back from his Florida honeymoon, might be called Monday as a witness before the investigating committee.

Patriarca, labelled by police as "Rhode Island's Public Enemy No. 1," meanwhile remained in Charles at jail for lack of $10,000 bail on robbery charges brought in Suffolk County.

Senator Jarvis Hunt, investigation committee chairman, said Patriarca might be hailed before the legislative body.

The six attorneys, whose identities were guarded, were named to the committee as having approached friends and relatives of prison inmates with offers to obtain pardons and paroles in exchange for fees.

In a closed hearing, Alph W. Robart, chairman of the state parole board, listed the lawyers, whom the committee announced it would summon to testify, together with the convicted relatives named by Robart in his charges.

Those named were said to profess having broad political influence in obtaining pardons or paroles.

Only bright spot for Patriarca, who was obviously disgusted by the day's events, was the granting by Judge Wilford D. Gray in Middlesex Superior Court of his plea for a delay in trial to the fall term.

Judge Gray previously had denied four special pleas of his counsel to abate, quash and dismiss two indictments charging Patriarca with auto larceny and with being an accessory. Patriarca then pleaded not guilty to the charges.

In arguing for delay in trial until October, Atty. Herbert F. Callahan had explained that the immense publicity surrounding the defendant would militate against him in a trial at the present time.

KING ENDS TOUR IN HALIFAX

HALIFAX, N. S., June 15 (Canadian Press)—King George and Queen Elizabeth ended an historic 9401 mile journey through Canada and the United States as they arrived today at this old-Nova Scotia port, where they will embark tonight for Newfoundland on their way back to England.

Thousands of subjects, drawn from all parts of the maritime provinces gave them a welcome such as has gratified Their Majesties at every stop of their 30-day trip across the continent and back.

Long before the royal blue-and-silver train arrived at 1:05 a. m. Halifax was packed with crowds who had gathered throughout the night to roar a welcome and later say farewell to the King and Queen. Their Majesties' last night in Canada—and last night aboard the train on which they have slept 22 nights since landing at Quebec May 17—was spent on a siding a few miles east of Truro.

An unscheduled stop was made at Truro, where 15,000 spectators cheered when the King and Queen made a 10-minute platform appearance.

Sales Tax Bill Kept Alive in New Move

Revival of the 2 per cent sales tax controversy was threatened at the State House today when the Senate tabled three measures recommended for rejection by the taxation committee.

The move probably will bar action on the proposal pending determination of the fate of Governor Saltonstall's new $50,000,000 emergency taxation program.

Ahe motion to table the controversial measure was made by Senator Arthur W. Hollis of Newton, chairman of the ways and means committee.

He emphatically denied later, in on the sales tax proposal was left response to questions, that action hanging as a club to force through the governor's program. He said, however, that the sales tax was one of several possible means of raising revenue, and added:

"We didn't want it to go out of our control."

Parolee Freed As Topsy Driver

With his freedom for years to come at stake, James H. Scully, pardoned state prison convict, won acquittal on a drunken driving charge in Quincy court today.

By order of State Commissioner of Correction Arthur T. Lyman, agents of the parole board kept tabs on disposition of Scully's case.

Had the charge against him been sustained, Commissioner Lyman was prepared to urge revocation of his pardon, which was granted under parole conditions.

Scully's state prison sentence was for 16 to 20 years for armed robbery.

The sentence was imposed on the robbery charge after he had been found not guilty of the murder of Charles "King" Solomon, underworld "big shot" and gang boss, who was slain in the South End Cotton Club in January, 1933.

Scully was pardoned on Thanksgiving, 1936, by Governor James M. Curley and the executive council.

Arrest of Scully on the drunken charge was on the early morning of June 2. The arresting officer, Patrequis, Frank Valier, testified today he smelled liquor on the former convict's breath.

GIRL BRIDE FREED BUT LOSES SON

A pretty, 22-year-old salesgirl, Mrs. Ruth Christian Whittier, was freed of her material ties today, but her baby son must remain in the custody of his wealthy grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Whittier, Sr., of Ipswich.

So ended a high school romance and summer elopement of five years ago in Judge John V. Phelan's court at Salem.

The girl who was a bride at 16 was granted a divorce on grounds of cruelty on her testimony that her husband, Frederick, Jr., struck her while she still suffered a broken shoulder received in a skiing accident.

Young Whittier, well known yacht builder, did not contest. Judge Phelan made permanent the custody he had granted to the father's parents in a hearing for temporary custody last year.

At that time, the mother sobbed, "I want my baby because I love him."

She admitted her child would have every financial advantage with his grandparents but that she feared he might grow up to be a "playboy."

"I'm not afraid they won't take good care of him," she said. "But I love my baby and want him."

"I don't think any environment, no matter how luxurious, can be worth as much to a boy as his mother's loving care. I worked to support my child when he was tiny and I expect to be able to support him in the future."

Judge Phelan, who earlier had granted the mother temporary alimony, gave her none in the final decree.

4 NATIONS TO AID
1004 NAZI EXILES

PARIS, June 15 (AP)—The 907 German Jewish refugees aboard the liner St. Louis today radioed to relief workers here expressing joy after "deepest despair" that they would not be compelled to return to Nazi Germany.

The St. Louis is bringing them back to Europe after their failure to gain entrance to Cuba. Four European nations have agreed to give them temporary havens.

The American joint distribution committee announced an agreement had been reached to allow 97 refugees aboard the French liner Flandres, heading toward Europe after failure to gain admission to Cuba or Mexico, to be given homes in France.

Morris C. Troper, European manager of the committee, said the St. Louis would arrive at Antwerp

Saturday.

Three groups of about 250 each are to be transported from Antwerp to France, England and the Belgian interior and the rest sent to The Netherlands. The refugees have been granted temporary asylum in the four nations upon guarantee they would not become public charges.

Troper said the 97 refugees aboard the Flandres would land at St. Nazaire early next week and be given homes in France under guarantees similar to those made for the St. Louis passengers.

18 Quizzed
Secretly on Branding

BALTIMORE, June 15 (AP)—David E. Weglein, superintendent of schools, held a closed inquiry today for 18 high school students suspended after Melvin Bridge, 14, a Jewish youth, complained he had been branded with a letter "H" scratched in his neck.

Weglein said he would not make public the result of the inquiry, which he emphasized was not a "hearing." However, Murray McNabb, attorney for three of the youths, said he would have a statement after the meeting. Weglein said he would report results direct to the school board.

McNabb told reporters he had been excluded from the hearing. He said the students were segregated and were being called, one by one, before Weglein.

He complained to Forrest Bramble, president of the school board, and said Bramble told him it was the proper way to conduct the inquiry.

McNabb said he would refuse to permit his clients to go before Weglein unless he was allowed to accompany them.

Complaining about what he called "star chamber" proceedings, McNabb said that "even a criminal is entitled to a public hearing."

The school board was summoned to meet later in the day for its probe of the incident which precipitated a counter-assault on another group of students and brought an announcement by Representative Martin J. Dies his House committee on un-American activities would make a "routine investigation."

Bishop Confirms
639 in Medford

Six hundred and thirty-nine recipients, comprising 608 children and 31 adults, became soldier members of the Roman Catholic Church after confirmation services in St. Joseph's Church, Medford—the largest number ever confirmed in the city's history.

Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Emmett, S. J., bishop of Jamaica, conferred the holy sacrament on 500 members of St. Joseph's parish and on 138 others from the Sacred Heart, St. Raphael's and St. Francis of Assisi Church in Medford.

Others in the class were from Cambridge, Waltham, Revere and Somerville.

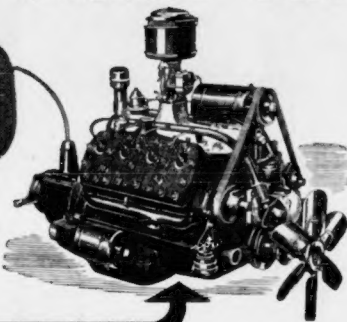

In his address to the communicants, the Bishop stressed the necessity of "courage, understanding and faith in support of the church and the country."

Assisting him in the ceremony were Rev. Dr. Charles A. Finn, pastor of the church; Rev. Thomas W. Ferris, Rev. John F. Donoghue, Rev. John W. Garrick, Rev. James P. Ryan and Rev. Francis Sullivan of the Sacred Heart Church.

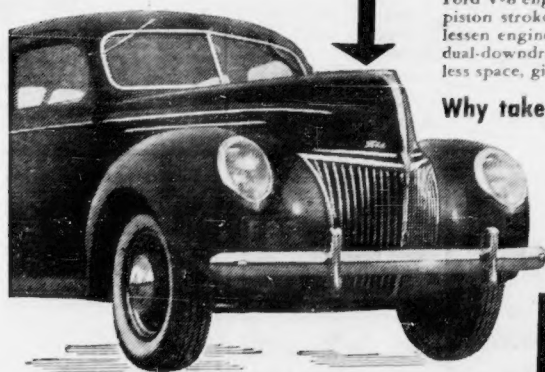

2 Killed, 2 Wounded
In Palestine Shootings

JERUSALEM, June 15 (AP)—A Jew opened fire on a group of Arabs today on the outskirts of Tel Aviv, killing one and wounding two.

A Jewish special constable was killed when shots were fired at a truck on the Nazareth-Tiberias road.

WHY OWN LESS THAN AN EIGHT?

ALL "fine cars" have 8 or more cylinders—many "fine cars" have V-type engines. Ford is the only low-priced car with both these great engine advantages! And in Ford V-8, you pay no more for these fine-car features! Why limit yourself to a "six"—why take less than Ford V-8 offers you?

Why take less than FORD V-8 PERFORMANCE?

Only Ford in the low-price field gives you the smooth power of an 85 H.P. V-8 engine. Ford V-8 placed 1-2-3 in the grueling 4515 South American Grand Prize road race this year—a Ford-built Mercury 8 won first place and Ford V-8's took all other prizes in this year's Daytona Beach Road Race! Proof of speed, stamina, power!

Why take less than FORD V-8 ECONOMY?

Ford V-8 cylinders are eight for smoothness—small for economy! Last January, in the famous 515 mile Gilmore-Yosemite Economy Run, an 85 H.P. Ford V-8 gave best gas mileage of all leading low-price cars.

Why take less than FORD V-8 ENGINEERING?

Ford V-8 precision engineered engines need no "breaking in." Ford V-8 engine design lowers center of gravity... provides shorter piston stroke. Valve-seat inserts on both intake and exhaust valves lessen engine wear and promote longer engine life! Carburetion is dual-downdraft; clutch semi-centrifugal! Short V-8 engine takes up less space, gives more room for use of passengers!

Why take less than ALL THESE FEATURES?

Biggest Hydraulic Brakes, steadiest riding chassis, longest ridebase of any low-price car... Most extra equipment at no extra cost... Baked enamel, long-wearing finish... Recognized style leadership! Ford low delivered prices include many items of equipment—see your Ford dealer today!

CITES SOLDIERS' CASE

He listed numerous such incidents, including the case of a British soldier, James [Name Redacted], who was captured in 1964. The consul general said:

"Japanese military and Chinese police twice stopped, boarded and searched British craft on the Hal River yesterday."

Japs Widen Blockade Against British, French

At the same time, messages from foreign sources at Hankow said that Japanese gunboats had refused to allow British and French flag British shipping from the field of Swire, refusing passage

There was no further word of the first attack, and among the students and teachers and those of the camp and of the community, there was a feeling of relief. A day later, the police were called to remove a few more from the camp, and the first attack was over. The camp was closed, and only a few students remained. They had been in the camp for a few days, and the police were called to remove a few more from the camp.

Economic Realization
LONDON, June 15 AP.—Dominion Secretary, Sir Ian G. Jackson today reported to the House of Commons that the British Government was not ready to take direct economic action against What type of economic retaliation included discriminatory tariffs, exclusion of Japanese ships from ports, and other measures that prevented Japanese goods and materials shipped to Japan.

'Shh! Don't Tel

"Hmm!"

—Looks pretty big on her—but Mrs. Ed Winslow of West Proxbury guesses smoking jacket size will be just about right for Father's Day gift to husband. Still . . . oh, shopping for a man is always so difficult!

Useful

—Betty Burdett's father has a daughter who knows what will please him. And here Betty buying dad sturdy gabardine and leather sports jacket good for year-round wear. Clerk is Gertrude Moore. Father's Day will be second Christmas in the Burdett home.

Swanky

—Nothing's too good for dad of Miss Caroline Bianco, she tells Clerk Harry Goldberg. So nifty auto radio will be Papa Bianco's Father's Day present.

"Oh, Boy!"—Will dad wow 'em in the bold-striped pajamas daughter Marie Nolan is just hankering to buy, with Salesgirl Florence Smith aiding and abetting her! Nightshirt, instead? Nonsense! Not for a modern father

I Dad! It's a Surprise'

Practical

—Nine-year-old Peggy White is daughter with eye to the future. And she's all for giving dad fancy pin seal wallet. With hope he'll always have it handy. Peggy is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John White.

Stylish—Right in the mode, dad of Miss Marie Carvill of West Newton will be, when he opens his Father's Day gift package and finds herringbone tweed sports coat Marie is buying in a Washington street clothing store. Salesman Joseph Venuti approves Marie's taste.

"Fore!"—Apparently not scared a bit of becoming a "golf orphan," young Miss Eve McGuire of Somerville picks out a swell set of matched clubs for her pop, on Father's Day.

Perplexing—When it comes to choosing a gift shirt for dad, Mrs. Miles Rowland of Arlington, and daughter, Mary Patricia, discover selection isn't easy. Mary Patricia votes for silk. Mother Rowland urges something neat and conservative.

Xmas in June? Dad'll Think So, Come Sunday

This is the week wives and daughters get one even of Santa.

It's the week of the gift giving, the week of the shopping, the week of the Christmas spirit.

It's the week of the Santa Claus, the week of the Christmas tree, the week of the Christmas gifts.

And it's the week of the Christmas Eve, the week of the Christmas morning, the week of the Christmas day.

It's the week of the Christmas Eve, the week of the Christmas morning, the week of the Christmas day.

It's the week of the Christmas Eve, the week of the Christmas morning, the week of the Christmas day.

It's the week of the Christmas Eve, the week of the Christmas morning, the week of the Christmas day.

It's the week of the Christmas Eve, the week of the Christmas morning, the week of the Christmas day.

It's the week of the Christmas Eve, the week of the Christmas morning, the week of the Christmas day.

It's the week of the Christmas Eve, the week of the Christmas morning, the week of the Christmas day.

Galluses—With a husband and a father both presumably scornful of belt-wearing, Mrs. Wallace Pulsifer of Natick bows to inevitable and shops for suspenders for Father's Day gifts. Cameraman who snaps her wins a big and cheery smile.

AFTER THE LITRIS passed sentence, most of the audience and the press rose to the surface. A Sinkings episode was discussed, rating a fish. The doctors of freedom were accused. "Fish okay," an interpreter assured the doctors. "Not from lagoon. She bring fish up from Florida six weeks ago," ... Lawrence Dennis, author of "The Living American Fascism", told him: "She's a fish, not a doctor and a Semite!" ... "That's ridiculous," said Strachey. ... "There is only one real assassin in Germany," Dennis protested. "Only one—Adolf Hitler." ... Groucho and Chico Marx get $25000 per show for their "Radio Rhapsodies". A group, "Radio's Great Threat", for their "Radio Rhapsodies" was organized. ... The "Radio Rhapsodies" show for the Sinkings audience will be held at the Center Theater, later.

Resourceful Grad Gets Employment

It takes extra pressure in a year of continuing unemployment for new graduates to swing open the door of opportunity in the business world.

If young men and women want to show how much heat to apply to job battles, the answer is "Enough to do the job."

It is not enough this year for the job seeker merely to follow the conventional maxims. Well-combed hair, neatly shined shoes and clean clothes, though desirable, are not enough.

The goal should be to create interest on the part of the prospective employer before seeking to sell him something.

Often a resourceful newcomer is sent around the hard boiled personnel officer by making academic surveys of economic conditions and meeting executives.

the role of fact-finder, rather than policy-maker.

One alert student wrote his master's thesis on how to stimulate factors of demand in arid desert. After familiarizing himself with the background through reading the literature, he made appointments for personal interviews. The purpose was to get data for his thesis. As a by-product he made valuable business contacts and had a chance to impress others with his capacity and alertness. In one corporation an official asked him what he in-ended to do when he was graduated. He replied that he didn't know. An offer came to join the staff of the corporation.

Another wide-awake college man wrote a thesis on why oil companies locate filling stations where they do. Before he got through he was an expert on the subject. An oil company gave him employment.

United Shoe Corp.

At a meeting of directors of the United Shoe Machinery Corporation Wednesday, Sidney W. Winslow, Jr., who has been president of the company for 12 years, was elected chairman of the board. Albert W. Todd of Boston, a vice-president and director, was elected president, and Harold G. Donham, a vice president, was elected executive vice president. Other officers were re-elected.

WILLIAM S. HART STARS AGAIN IN BOSTON'S WESTERN EPIC

CORINNE LUCHAIRE in a tense scene from Alexander Korda's "Mutiny on the Bounty," opening today at the Paramount and Fenway. Corinne has been hailed as a new screen find.

Sea Classic At Trans-Lux

Trans-Lux Theater tomorrow introduces its new summer policy of reviving screen classics. It is presenting Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's sea classic "Mutiny on the Bounty," co-starring Charles Laughton and Clark Gable. Frank Lloyd, who filmed "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "Sea Hawk," directed the picture, which faithfully follows the original British Admiralty records and the action. The story was written by Charles Nordhoff and James Norman Hall. Laughton plays Captain Bligh, Clark Gable Fletcher Christian, leader of the mutiny. The picture is a Midshipman Byam, whose plea for his life before a naval court martial of 150 years ago is the great scene. For the spectacular film, the original H. M. S. Bounty was re-created in exact detail from British Admiralty plans. The language of the Trans-Lux hall consists of the popular "Newsies," "Top Hat," a Walt Disney cartoon, "Mickey's Kernal" and other interesting short subjects.

A PAIR of screen acts, Charles Laughton and Clark Gable, are co-starred in "Mutiny on the Bounty," being tested tomorrow on the Trans-Lux screen.

W. S. Hart Back on Boston Screen; New Vaudeville

William S. Hart, who has never really been forgotten by his fans, is back to EKO Boston screen tomorrow in his greatest triumph. "Timberwolves" will be a revival of the action picture of the Cherokee story in 1928.

Timberwolves, which is a story of a man who is the only survivor of a party of men who were killed by a pack of timberwolves, is a story of a man who is the only survivor of a party of men who were killed by a pack of timberwolves.

Jeanette McDonald In Olympia Feature

Washington St. Olympia Theater tomorrow offers "Broadway Boogie Woogie," starring Jeanette McDonald, Lew Ayres and Frank Morgan, and "The Fred Astaire Show," co-starring Nelson Bates and Kay Brown.

State Theater Honors Fathers

Perhaps the first film picture in the history of the State Theater, the Fathers Day picture, is a story of a man who is the only survivor of a party of men who were killed by a pack of timberwolves. The picture is a story of a man who is the only survivor of a party of men who were killed by a pack of timberwolves.

'Bell' Film Comes To Uptown Friday

"The Story of Alexander Bell," a vivid drama of the inventor of the telephone, is the background for one of the screen's most direct romances comes to the Uptown Theater on Friday. The picture is a story of a man who is the only survivor of a party of men who were killed by a pack of timberwolves.

Grandma, 73, Hits Homer in Soft Ball Game

BURSTON, (Y. June 15 (AP)—Grandma Martha Steele, 73, of East Harford stepped to the plate, swung at a low, inside curve and slammed the ball for a 15-foot home run in a woman's soft ball game at a church picnic.

"They didn't think I could do it," she said at her home today between telephone calls from friends who had just heard of her Babe Ruth wallop.

"They didn't know that I used to play baseball as a girl and was better than lots of boys. Too bad the bases were empty!"

ITALIAN AIRMEN HOME

GENOA, June 15 (AP) — A group of 2800 Italian aviators came home today from Spain, where they helped Generalissimo Franco win the Spanish civil war. Creditors said they were the last of 6000 Italian aviators sent to Spain.

San Jose Laddie Rules at Revere

By GREYHOUND

San Jose Laddie stands head and shoulders above the field in the sixth race and goes as my best bet on the card at Wonderland track tonight. This pup has trained well and has the earmarks of being one of the best racers in a few weeks. Wouldn't be surprised to see him elevated to the eighth event should he win tonight.

BEST BET SAN JOSE LADDIE—SIXTH RACE

FELLER HEADS FOR 30 WINS

By PAT ROBINSON

International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, June 15.—A major league pitcher who can win 20 games a season as a rare gem, indeed. And one who can win 30 is a jewel beyond price.

On that basis, young Bob Feller of the Indians stands out today as the rarest diamond the majors have had in many years.

By virtue of his 42 decision over the Yanks yesterday, he became the first pitcher in either league this year to win 10 games. And since the season is not quite one-third over, he stands an excellent chance to become the first 30-game winner the majors have had since Lefty Grove turned in 31 back in 1931.

HE MAY WIN 30

The big farm boy used to be too wild to be effective, but now he is just wild enough to prevent the hitters from taking a toe hold against his blinding fast ball. He has acquired poise and savvy on the mound and a knowledge of the hitters around the circuit.

With all this as a backing to draw upon, he should readily account for the magic 30 victories this year.

He worked eight innings yesterday before giving way for a pinch-hitter and ever that stretch the Yanks could get only four hits off him—two by Ted Rolfe and two by Joe DiMaggio, who seems bent on hitting over 100 this year.

Although beaten, the Yanks actually increased their lead half a game when the Red Sox bowed twice to the Tigers, 9-8 and 6-2.

DUTCH LEONARD STARS

Dutch Leonard gave up only four hits as the Senators trimmed the White Sox, 3-0. It was the first shutout turned in by a Washington pitcher this year.

And speaking of the first division look where the Giants are today on the wings of their sixth straight victory. With Zeke Bonura hitting two homers and Bill Lohman giving only six hits, the Giants not only trimmed the Cubs, 2-1, but shoved them down into the second division.

The Giants are almost in a tie for third place with the Dodgers, who bowed to the Cardinals, 5-2. The Reds kept their five-game lead intact by trouncing the Phillies 10-7.

Wyantenuck Shuts Down on Tourneys

The Wyantenuck Country Club of Great Barrington, which for several years has conducted the western New England tennis championships for men and women, will not stage these tournaments this summer, according to an announcement by Percy Rogers, secretary of the N. E. L. T. A.

Rogers was recently informed by Everett H. Pell, chairman of the Wyantenuck C. C. tennis committee of the club's intention of dropping the men's championships scheduled for July 12-15 and the women's championships, slated for Aug. 8-12 for this year. The competition will be resumed in 1940.

Yale Polo Team In Final Round

BURNT MILLS, N. J., June 15 (AP).—Yale University polo team gained the final round of the National Intercollegiate polo tournament on an 11 to 3 victory over a loose West Point four.

Yale's triumph pits the Bulldogs against Harvard in the final scheduled for next Saturday. Harvard, defending champion, whipped Yale in last year's final.

HERE'S MUD IN YOUR EYE—That is Yankee Charley Keller's taunt as he skids safely home in New York as Indian catcher Rolie Hemsley drops the ball. That was one tally for the Yanks, but the Indians thundered under the wire or down the victory warpath or down some such figure of speech to win, 4 to 2.

Red Sox, Bees 'Blackballed' By Major Clubs

won their last seven starts and 12 of their last 15 games.

The Sox must get greatly improved pitching to go with their hitting to avoid being passed by these two Western rivals.

It would seem that somewhere in the minors there must be some pitcher, either rookie or veteran, who is superior to a few of the present Cronin chuckers.

If there isn't, big league clubs are wasting too much time and money sponsoring minor league farms.

It might be, too, that a different system of handling the current Sox corps would help.

It's all very well to try to win the game at hand and worry about tomorrow when it arrives, but no pitching staff can function efficiently if the majority of its members are called upon to work four or five times a week as they must be when three or four are employed in almost every game.

The Sox pitching couldn't be worse and might improve if starting pitchers were occasionally kept on the job for full nine innings regardless of how they might be faring.

It's bad enough to use up two pitchers losing two games. It's criminal to use up seven.

CALL ON AUKER

In danger of falling out of second place if they don't win today, the Sox will call on ex-Tiger Elden Auker, who, next to Grove, has been their most reliable performer since Rich went lame.

He'll earn his victory if he gains it for the Bengals are nominating their best bet, the rejuvenated Tommy Bridges, who has helped himself to seven wins in eight starts, including a shutout over the Yanks.

Bonura Scoffs at Snipers

CHICAGO, June 15 (AP).—The lone character in that baseball mystery entitled "The Strange Case of Zeke Bonura" predicted today the drama is ready to fold up for lack of a strong enough plot.

Ever since the Giants obtained Zeke to play first base the skit has had a lively run. Some fans have said he'd never be able to field well enough for the exacting Bill Terry.

To the big, likable Bonura, with a batting average through Wednesday of .341, this is all quite puzzling—but he's not at all uncertain of how it will end. Incidentally, his two home runs yesterday beat the Cubs 2 to 1.

"It's funny thing," he said between huge bites of ham, eggs and toast, "but I've been hearing them humors about the Giants getting rid of me all around the league. Hummm. Just a couple weeks ago some friend of mine sent me a clipping from a Chicago paper saying The Giants are about ready to give up on Bonura."

"Now don't you believe a word of it. Bill Terry—as fine a guy and smart a manager as there is—told me at camp that I fielded good enough for his money."

HYDE PARK RUNDRAWS 50 ENTRIES

A fast field of 50 runners will race Saturday afternoon in the second annual five-mile road race sponsored by the Hyde Park Alumni Association.

Entries close tonight. To date a brilliant field has been assembled.

The B. A. A. has sent the entries of George Durgin of Beverly and Bill Simonds of Needham, a pair of outstanding plodders. Jack Richardson, this past year's Hyde Park regimental and district 1000-yard champ and winner of the Patriot's Day Norfolk Y. M. C. 3-mile grind, is also entered.

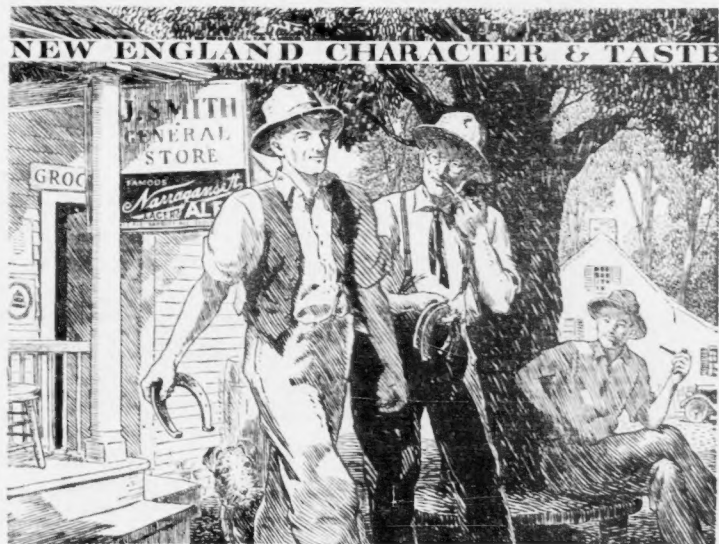

Another local boy, Fred Seoley, a Boston College freshman runner this spring and winner of the inaugural last year, will be a serious contender to repeat.

The race starts at the Hyde Park municipal building and will take in Roslindale and Mattapan before winding back at the starting point.

WELSH SETS PACE

Marshall Welsh, president of the Sandy Burr Country Club, took the low gross honors with an $8 as nearly 100 members of the New England Corset Club attended the annual outing and golf tournament yesterday on the Sandy Burr course.

ELSIE ROBINSON writes from the woman's viewpoint, discusses everyday affairs and problems regularly in the Boston American.

REAL old New England pleasures that go together — pitching horseshoes and the refreshing relaxation of cooling, thirst-quenching Narragansett.

2 Softball Games At Garden Tonight

Pretty

team against Newark
tonight at Garden.

Newark and Worcester girls' softball nines invade the Garden tonight to tackle two Boston clubs in a colorful double bill.

The Newark team will oppose the Olympets in the main attraction, while the Home Service Laundry Girls, champions of Worcester, will test the Boston Gardenias in the preliminary game. The first duel will start at 8 o'clock with the "big game" slated for around 9 p. m.

The Linden Girls of Newark, N. J., come here boasting a clean slate having come through undefeated in all three of their starts. They are at the present leading the New York Metropolitan League by a comfortable margin.

Their ace hurler, Toots Nausse, will toe the slab against the Pets trying to keep her record of three straight intact. She has allowed no opposition but an average of 2 runs a game to date.

The Jersey lassies are the biggest team ever to face the local team. Six of their members are over 150 pounds, while their top hitter nears the 200 mark. Babe McCutcheon is the young lady in question, and she has poked out 6 hits in her first appearance at the bat. The Babe holds down third base.

The Pets' sister club, the Gardenias, will make their bid for major recognition tonight when they face the Worcester team. A strong rivalry exists between the two Boston outfits. A win for the Gardenias will place them on an even footing with their more highly regarded sisters.

Tonight's game marks the third appearance of the Pets on the Garden floor. To date they have won and lost one game over first ranking teams. With their record all even, they will go all out to balance the ledger on the right side.

WOODRUFF FLIES TO NC MEET

LOS ANGELES, June 15 (AP)—Geared for record-breaking attempts, more than 200 track and field athletes wound up training paces today for the National Collegiate championships as John (About Face) Woodruff flew into the scene of action to run for the last time for Pittsburgh.

Six hours after "definitely" deciding to compete in the Princeton invitational, Long John changed his mind—again—caught a plane and came West.

Woodruff, center of controversy between N. C. A. A. authorities and the Amateur Athletic Union, sponsor of the Princeton event, will be called upon to defend his 880 championship here as well as stretch his long legs in the quarter-mile.

College officials meanwhile checked crowded entry lists and announced that tomorrow's opening day would include preliminary heats in the sprints, 440, 880 and hurdle races and trials in the shot, discus, javelin and broad jump.

Impressive was the roll of defending champions on hand to compete, and threatening were the sectional titleholders aiming at the national spotlight.

TO BEGIN WITH, UNTIL THE ERA OF Magnificent Nonsense, soon before the World War, the envied pioneers of the sport writing profession were McGeehan, Grantland Rice, Damon Runyon and Ring Lardner. The last named had been lost in the great mob of mediocrity until he began his "You Know Me All" serials in the Saturday Evening Post and gradually became a great short-story writer and humorist who worked until he died in bed with his typewriter propped on his knees. His last words were supposed to have been, "I am trying to find out something that will make them laugh."

The thing which puffed sport into a National frenzy and made a few sport writers rich and envious was the period after the war when Dempsey and Ruth came along and people began unfurling their favorite family journals to the athletic page with nary a blink at the political or murder news. It was the beginning of the multi-million-dollar prize fight and when the baseball industry secretly needed the standard baseball. The big fight, the homerun, Paavo Nurmi, Bill Tilden, Bobby Jones and Man O'War naturally created an opportunity for sport writers to make from $10,000 to $150,000 a year with Runyon, McGeehan, Lardner and Rice leading the pack. But the vast bulk were still in the $50 to $75 a week class, where they still are. Which is the measure of what Professor Phelps means by the "Best and much more of the worst" in journalistic prose.

Fathers and Sons
As Sports Leaders

Quinns, Collinses,
Adamses, Browns

FATHERS' DAY always reminds me of the story of the man who had entertained his mother-in-law for two months. The dear old lady finally decided to go home, and before she had a chance to change her mind her devoted son-in-law had her and her baggage on the way to the station in his car at a 70-mile an hour clip.

Stopped by a motorcycle officer, the operator of the auto explained how he was taking his mother-in-law to the railroad station following a two months' vacation at his home.

"What's that got to do with it?" demanded the irate police officer.

I know none of Joe Timilty's men would ask such a dumb question.

As father of five little Bostons, I ask:

"What is the idea of giving father a cheer?" Perhaps we do this like we cheer the boxer who has taken it on the chin for a dozen rounds and who is still able to stagger back to his corner at the end of the 12th stanza. I am at least happy that Mrs. Bee-

Fathers and Sons in Athletics

IN ACTUAL athletic competition, place your money on the sons in these fathers and sons events. Youth must be served.

There was a time when I used to give the little Bostons rather generous handicaps when we played golf at Jack Leary's Seaside Country Club. I found I was losing, and so we now start all even. The competition has been getting more keen each season, and I expect that this year father will be fortunate to play off for show.

Any father who thinks he is a better athlete than his son is merely trying to build up his own confidence.

In Boston we have some interesting cases of where sons have stepped in with their fathers in sports promotions.

There is the case of the Quinn family. Bob Quinn, president and chief owner of the Bees, has been brought up in baseball. Son John is secretary of the ball club, and has charge of the various farms.

Eddie Collins' son, Eddie, Jr., has made a great record as a ball player at Yale, and may some day be playing for the Red Sox.

It was Charles F. Adams who established professional hockey in Boston. He made a success of the Bruins. Since getting interested in racing, Adams has turned over the Bruins to his son Weston. The latter won the Stanley Cup with the club last season.

Walter Brown, General Manager of the Garden, was brought up in an athletic atmosphere by his late dad, George V. Brown, who for years was athletic director of the B. A. A. and later general manager of the Arena-Garden combine.

In active athletes, sons have not measured up to famous dads. It is pathetic to see the sons of celebrated boxers trying to emulate the deeds of their illustrious fathers.

I think the idea of a fathers' day is a good one even if we do get gifts of funny looking neckties and cigars that we never smoke.

On fathers' day I can visualize the youngest of the little Bostons picking a flower from her garden at Seaside and placing it in my buttonhole as she throws her little arms around my neck. That is the real fathers' day gift.

Irish Greyhounds

I know your regard for Erins Teles and things Irish. And I know that your friend Dave Egan's recent article about Irish racing greyhounds interested you intensely. I want to let you know that in Taunton M. J. Gavin, a real Irishman now resident of St. Louis, has some Irish greyhounds who will make racing history at the Taunton oval. Why not come down and see these Irish speedsters compete with some raised here in America?

That is an inherent right all fathers have, and a mere day in our honor should not take this privilege away from us.

people in Sunday games, which tops the number of people in the town. When the Bees exhibition game with Bradford was raised out, it was necessary to make refunds on 3500 tickets bought in advance.

Income Tax Trouble—A few days after taking out U. S. citizenship, glamorous Marlene Dietrich was having trouble with her new Uncle Sam. Claiming $224,000 deficit in income tax payments, federal men said she couldn't go to Europe. They finally accepted $100,000 in jewels as security, and she sailed on the Normandie after boat was held up 44 minutes. She argues things out (above) with government agents.

London Bound—After visit to her home in Boston, Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy (above), wife of U. S. Ambassador to Court of St. James, sails from New York aboard the liner Washington, to rejoin her husband in England.
